ECHO BACK

30 YEAR OLD PAPER REVIVED

The Chautauqua Echoes, resort newspaper, revived Thursday at a meeting of the newly organized editorial board and interested parties.

Four interested residents organized themselves into an editorial board Thursday at a conference in the Spring's Hotel. They were: Dr. Hotze of St. Louis; Steve Voss of Alton; Al Mittler of St. Louis; and Sid Hormell of Jerseyville, who was elected chairman.

Earlier this season, Voss kindled the spark of enthusiasm to print the weekly mimeographed newspaper on the grounds, to renew the Echoe, which was last published in 1923. Before that date, the paper appeared monthly, under the editorship of M. Edwin Johnson, one time resort manager. From 1923 until today, the only successful attempt to give the resort its own newspaper was a news bulletin written mostly under the editorship of Frank Woodrow of Jerseyville.

Mimeograph equipment for the Echoe was donated by Joe Rain of Alton.

BOYS DEFEATED IN 4 HITTER

Saturday, July 16, the Chautauqua boys were defeated 4- 1 by the Dads at the Athletic Field. Mel Norris pitched a 4 hitter for the men. Pitching for the boys were Paul Stalder and Jim Meyers who gave up 7 hits to the Dads.

There well be a father and sons game Sunday, July 24, at the athletic Field. All are invited.

STATION STAND TO REOPEN

Lester Glassbrenner, who runs the Springs Inn, has decided to close the Station Stand because of financial difficulties.

It seems that Glassbrenner was losing money on it because the pool was not drawing swimmers, its main source of revenue.

The Station Stand will be taken over by Joe Meisel, who currently runs the popcorn stand, and by Larry Colbert. The stand will be open from ten o'clock in the morning till after the shows at night.

RAINS REJOICE

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rain celebrated their 25th wedding anniversity Sunday, July 17, with an open house on their lawn. Hours were from 3-5 and 7-9. About 275 guests called. In the midst of the refreshments stood a three-tiered wedding cake served by Mrs. Irl Rain. Punch was served by Mrs. Joe Rain's niece Margaret Kodros, and Mrs. Rain's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Joe Rain, Jr. both of Alton. The Rain's niece, Cindy Kodros, took charge of the guest book. In the receiving line were: Mrs. Rain's parents, Mr. & Mrs. B.E. Gamble of Springfield; attendant s at the wedding, Mr. & Mrs. C.N. Cole of Peoria; and Rain's sisters, Mrs. Otto Cichlar, Mrs. Gus Kodros, and Mrs. Joe Voss.

Life saving instructions are being given at the swimming pool under the direction of Miss Barbara Jacoby. There are 25 students in the class.

NATIVE COUNTRY COMPARED TO CHAUTAUQUA

Mrs. Robert Halbach of Belleville formerly of Tiral, Austria, arrived in Chautauqua July 19 to spend her 8 day vacation as a guest in the hotel and to compare Chautauqua with her native country which is a paradise of winter sports.

Austria, which is famous for the presentation of the Passion Play, presented every 10 years, is also internationally known as a winter ski resort.

Mrs. Halbach says she feels no homesickness after 2½ years in this country because, as she explains, "Here I make many friends and that makes up for my homesickness."

She lives with her husband and 3 children; Renate; 14; Maryann, 7; and Robert David, 2.

FOUNDLINGS FIND FRIENDS

The big controversial issue among the younger generation around Chautauqua this week was: Where did they come from and to whom do they belong? What they meant was, where did those eight cute puppies that were boarding under the abandoned filling station near the gate come from? Did they belong to a farmer near here or were they strays? Nobody here knows.

At the filling station, eight pups and two adults were making their home when someone noticed that they were there. From then on for 2 days there was confusion. The children seem to be squabbling over which dog belonged to whom. The dogs didn't mind because they were getting a free meal out of the deal.

Apparently, the dogs came in on the night of July 15, and started to rummage around the garbage cans on the grounds. By the next day that was no longer necessary because the children began to bring food to them. From then on they didn't want to leave.

On Monday night, July 17, A. L. Floss; C. C. Jacoby, and J. J. Hiergabth, (whose car was used to transport the pups to their destination) took the pups to a farmer near Jerseyville. So now the question of what happened to the pups has been answered, and the dogs have a home.

CHAPEL ECHOES

We at Chautauqua were indeed fortunate to have Dr. Frank Eversull speak to us at the Devotional Service Thursday evening, and we wish to thank him for giving of his time and of himself in this manner. Dr. Eversull spoke on the development of the American Theology in the last 100 years, and sketched the rise of the neo-orthadox and existentialist movements. W e all hope to be able to hear Dr. Eversull again before he culminates his vacation here at Chautauqua.

The speaker for the Sunday Morning Worship Service will be Rev. Rollyn Moseson, pastor of the Richmond Heights P resbyterian Church.

Never before in the last two decades have the prospects for world peace been so hopeful. The curtains of silence, distrust, and negativism have seemingly been lifted from the scene of world politics, and the way is cleared for peaceful co-existence and international cooperation. We must, however, not expect that "The restoration of order in history and the increase of peace will be done by some sudden and astonishing act-- ion of God" . (The words are those of Rev. Gerald B. O'Grady, of the American Church in Geneva.) Rather, it is up to men who are willing to work and pmay and allow God to work through them. This is not limited to those attending the Geneva Converence but rather it is up to us, the rank and file of citizens to give our whole-hearted support to those in the conference, to work to make the agreements reached to hold, and, above all to offer unceasing prayers to Almighty God for His guidance and sustanance, to the end that His will may be done on earth.

NEW STOP SIGN

The question, and a few times a heated one, among the drivers on the grounds is: Why do we have to stop at the gate when we are leaving? It seems that some of the residents here have been running the gate when they go out. So to stop this, a committee has put up a stop sign directly behind the gate house. Many people have asked "why"? The gatemen have the answer to this . They say that it is hard to rec drivers of the cars and they cannot tell if they are residents of visitors from whom they must collect.

So the gatemen have requested that you please stop your car before you pass on thru the gate.
